

Administrative Withdrawal Appeal Process

All students are required to both pay tuition and establish attendance through either submitting a Flex Course Check-In (FCC), or, any of the academic graded assessments within the first 8 days of the subscription period. Failure to pay or establish attendance by the specified deadline of 11:59 pm CST will result in the student being administratively withdrawn from course(s).

To appeal, the student must:

- Complete the Administrative Withdrawal Appeal Form below within two (2) business days following the date of being dropped from the course(s).
- Provide supporting documentation which demonstrates the reason why the deadline was missed.
 - Acceptable reasons and documentation may include:
 - Family related:
 - Death of an immediate family member – provide obituary or funeral notice
 - Medical emergency:
 - Documentation of the medical emergency from a physician or emergency room, including the date of the emergency and an explanation of the situation.
 - Military Call-Up/Active Duty:
 - Provide copy of military orders, which include the start date of deployment
 - Technology issue:
 - Provide screenshot of the technology issue.
 - Other:
 - If you feel the situation falls outside of the reasons listed above, you may still submit an appeal. Please provide a detailed explanation and supporting documentation that impacted your ability to establish attendance or pay tuition.
- Submit the appeal and supporting documentation as described above by email to the Appeals Committee at oel-registrar@uwex.edu.

Appeals will be reviewed by the committee, which meets as needed, and is comprised of representatives from the following offices: Registrar, Academic Success, and Financial Aid.

The committee will notify the student via campus email with their final decision within three (3) business days of receiving the appeal. The committee may request additional information from the student and/or Flex Faculty/staff in their review of the appeal. The decision of the committee is final.

If your appeal is denied, you may submit a term change form. Once the term change is processed, you can work with your ASC to re-enroll in the next available subscription period.

Return completed forms, along with supporting documentation, to the Appeals Committee at oe-registrar@uwex.edu. For additional information on the appeal process, refer to the Administrative Withdrawal Appeal Process.
