Guidelines for a Flexible Option Credit Overload Permit

- Submit this form to your Success Coach (SC) after completing all required fields.
- The SC will submit the request to the UW-Parkside Office of the Registrar.
- Your SC will communicate with you regarding the outcome of the request for a credit overload. If approved, at this point you will be able to add courses.

If approved, the student will be informed via email by the SC. The student should be able to add the rest of their classes after having been notified that it was approved and processed.

Criteria for Flexible Option Credit Overload Approval

For Degree Seeking Students

- Permission to register for more than 20 credits a subscription period is generally not approved unless you have earned at least an M in a minimum of 14 completed credits in a preceding subscription period.
- It is possible that an exception may be made under extraordinary circumstances for students who are in their first or second subscription period. These will be handled on a case by case basis.

For Non-Degree Seeking Students

- Permission to register for more than 6 credits in a given term is not allowed without approval by the Success Coach and UW-Parkside Registrar's Office.
