

Academic Appeal for Reinstatement

If you were academically dropped from UWM for one term or two years, you may return to the University after your period away has passed. After sitting out your designated dropped period, your academic hold to return to UWM will be removed. If you were dropped and feel that exceptional circumstances justify an appeal to return prior to your drop/suspension period, you must file an Academic Appeal for Reinstatement.

CONDITIONS OF REINSTATEMENT

If your appeal for reinstatement is approved, you will be reinstated to UWM on Final Probation and will remain on Final Probation until you raise your cumulative grade point average (GPA) to 2.00 or above.

If you receive below a 2.00 subscription period GPA while on Final Probation, you will be dropped for two years. Therefore, it is important that you give careful consideration to this request.

Steps for Reinstatement Appeal

We strongly recommend that you submit your appeal form two months prior to the start of your next intended subscription period (especially if your goal is to re-enroll immediately after your drop period ends). Your appeal should include the following components:

1. Student Information – Full Name, UWM Campus ID Number, Flex Program of Study, UWM Email, Preferred Phone Number
2. Reflection – Keep this to one page (typed) and address the following:
 - a. Factors that prevented you from successfully completing your courses in your most recent subscription period(s).
 - b. Behaviors or circumstances that have changed, or will change, that will allow you greater academic success when you return.
 - c. Responsibilities outside of school (work, family, etc.), the time commitment required for those responsibilities, and how you intend to create the balance necessary to be successful.
3. Action Plan – Outline your intended plan for the next 3-6 months:
 - a. Identify courses you intend to complete (work closely with your ASC and consider retakes, remaining requirements, etc.).
 - b. Identify any resources you will use to help achieve your goals.

Return the following “Academic Appeal for Reinstatement” form to the UW Extended Campus (UWEX) Office of the Registrar at registrar@uwex.wisconsin.edu. You will receive an email within three weeks with the decision on your reinstatement appeal.
